

Your Career Story

All of our life experiences are part of our Career Story. The learning and insight we gain from these moments help develop us into the professionals that we are today.

Prosperity

successful, flourishing, or thriving experiences

1969

1993

1999

2005

Early Years

Key Learning Moments and Turning Points in Your Life

Today

Adversity

adverse or unfortunate events or circumstances; obstacles

1987

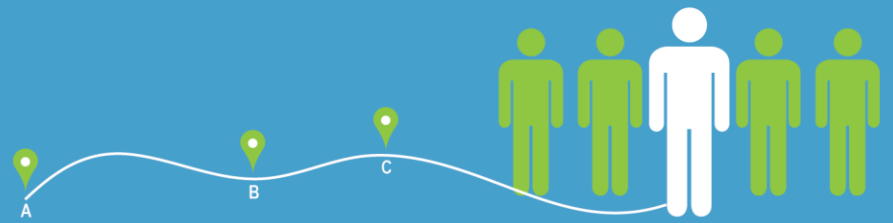

1996

2009

Your Career Story

Instructions: On this diagram (or a separate sheet), write out, draw or mount pictures to articulate Your Career Story. Identify specific learning experiences you have had in life and how they shaped your career journey. Consider all learning moments, including those that represent both prosperity and adversity, and reflect on how each experience impacted your development.

Prosperity

successful, flourishing, or thriving experiences

Early Years

Key Learning Moments and Turning Points in Your Life

Today

Adversity

adverse or unfortunate events or circumstances; obstacles

Your Career Story

Reflections on Your Career Story

Think about your own Career Story and write the answers to the questions below.

1. How have your experiences helped you to develop and connect with your core values?
2. How have your experiences prompted you to step out of your comfort zone?
3. How have your adversities or challenges helped you to achieve moments of leadership greatness?
4. How have your experiences shaped you into the professional you want to be?